IN THE WORLD OF MAKE BELIEVE A CORNER IN ANCESTORS. By Francis cowless.

CURRENT WEEK IN LOCAL THEATERS

Vaudeville For Next Week.

Odiva, the "Samoan Water Queen, with her school of Pacific sea lions, in an immense glass water tank, in which will occur many fascinating feats of aquatic skill and daring, will lead the Keith bill next week. Other offerings will be Mysteria," the latest enigmatic novelty. Henry Lewis, inenigmatic noversy, and dulging in "A Vaudeville Cocktail;" Burnham and Irwin; Miss Fremont Benton and company, in "Handker-Benton and company, in "Handker-chief No. 15." La France and Bruce, blackface debaters in "The Argu-ment." Sue Smith, the altogether dif-ferent comedience; the El Rey sisters, the Pathe pictures and organ recital.

At the Cosmos This Week.

Harry Rapi's Broadway revue, "The Midnight Cabaret," featuring the choicest selections from the entertainment of of New York's elite at the big cafes and presented by a company of twelve singers, dancers and comedians in specisity lines, will headline the Cosmos bill this week. The production is handsomely staged and contains in revue form many novel songs, unique dances and refined comedy specialties. Bert Weston and Frances Keith head the players. New rooking arrangements, the management announces, will enable the presentation hereafter of a galaxy of the newest and best vaudeville acts to be found in New York. For the first half of the week the bill will present the News-boy Sexiet, a juvenile organization of harmony singers and comedians: the Musicul Krells, one of the best of musi-cal acts. Will J. Morrisey, Irish monologist Elliott and Mullen, black and tan singers, dancers and vodiers, and Charles Ledegar, in an aerobatic comedy. Be-ginning with the Thursday matiness, the bill will present the Five Merry Young-sters in a school revelry. Tiskur's Roosone of the povelties of the season hy feathered comedians: Ben Smith. Hughey Jennings' vandeville partner, in blackface merriment. Deerle and Carter variety entertainers, and a new Charlie Chaplin feature in two reels. The added Chaplin feature in two reels. The added attractions will include the Hearst-Seliz latest news picture release and photoplays that are changed daily

Tschaikowsky's 'Song Without Words, selections from 'Chin Chin,' Cobb's reverse 'Afterglow,' Monaco's characteris-deal of interest. That it will be a com- Seven Colonial Belles in an instru-tures will be shown all this week plete success is assured, for more than a score have already announced themselves entestants and the lists will be held called "Irene O Dare," which Conan & Harris will produce. Irene is a little Irish salesgirl in a big department store.

The management olders each of the ladies who are winners a $50 diamond studded gold medal. In both contests the selection of the winner will be left to zee. It is called "Friend Martha."

The contest will be launched Tuesday evening at 10.20, when all the entrants will be given the floor and twenty couples selected from them to compete in the one-step final on Wednesday evening. The "hesitation elimination" is set for

Of course, the dance contest is an add where," the principal burlesque. ed feature, and this week all of the regular attractions and specials will be on comedy, had its trial performance in At-For the Sunday pairon, the manage- cludes Natalie Alt, remembered for the research the bill as usual.

Four concerts, two in the afternoon and two at night, will give all a chance to hear it.

Georgia Caine will have the prima inauguration of the new season.

Frank Finney is supported by J. P. Griffith. Adelle Archer, Charley Janson, two at night, will give all a chance to hear it.

Georgia Caine will have the prima inauguration of the new season.

Frank Finney is supported by J. P. "Among those present" in the forefront of the returning theatrical army to New York is Leo Ditrichstein. But he won't ning to produce in the East. The piece our Walter, Jean Caruthers and a dozen of the returning theatrical army to New York is Leo Ditrichstein. But he won't ning to produce in the East. The piece our Walter, Jean Caruthers and a dozen of the returning theatrical army to New York is Leo Ditrichstein. But he won't ning to produce in the East. The piece our Walter, Jean Caruthers and a dozen of the returning theatrical army to New York is Leo Ditrichstein. But he won't ning to produce in the East. The piece our Walter, Jean Caruthers and a dozen of the returning theatrical army to New York is Leo Ditrichstein. But he won't ning to produce in the Savoy Produce our Walter, Jean Caruthers and a dozen of the returning theatrical army to New York is Leo Ditrichstein. ization made its debut two weeks ago Four concerts, two in the afternoon and

NEWS NOTES.

The Gavety, which opens Monday, Au gust 16, has been extensively remodeled from pit to dome. In addition to considerable interior and exterior redecora-tion, an entirely new roof has been added. A brand new curtain has been installed and several new drops and pieces of scenery added; Resident Manager Roland S Robbins

among the music halls

Hitchcock company

again next season

Janis show

Francis McGinn will be in the Elsie Kathleen Hitchens is engaged for the

"The Blue Envelope" may be produced

William Collier will direct the rehears

Ferne Rogers is reading a new opera

Rosamond Carpentier is to have a written by Frederick Schrader.

manuscript to California.

to Boston this week to see his mother, who resides in the Hub city. Mrs. Robbins will accompany him. Returning they will visit the North Shore and the course to the Gayety. Theater tomorrow, and dress rehearsals will be the orrow, and dress rehearsals will be the orrow, and dress rehearsals. J. W. Cone, manager of Polis Theater, der all week. This company opens the resures the public that the home of per-Gayety season on Monday, August 16.

of the Keith Theater, expects to run up manent stock will be reopened the 23d of thus month, as previously announced

Suzanne Jackson, dramatic leading woman, has joined the Keith's repertory William Collier will direct to company at Portland, Me., as leading als for May Irwin's company.

Harry O Jarboe, the new manager of leading part in a new American drama which will be presented with an all-star Harry O. Jarboe, the new manager of the Gayety, who succeeds George M. Peck hide fair to find a warm place in the hearts of local burlesquers Mr. Jarboe is a great believer in this form of amusement and is leaving no stone unit of the management and is leaving no stone unit of the management and is leaving no stone unit of the management and is leaving no stone unit of the management and is leaving no stone unit of the management and in Sumulation of the management and the stone of run." her new spectacle.

Rupert Harvey, now playing the leading roles in the Shakespearean repertoire of the Ben Greet company, closes this season at the end of the present month Ethel Wright has brought her vacation. "Jeanne Dore," which ran the entire

Ethel Wright has brought her vacation season at the Theater Bernhardt, Paris to a close and next week begins rehears-als for "The Law of the Land," in which At the Burbank Theater, Los Angeles, Julia Dean will be the featured member. within the next fortnight Oliver Morosco will produce a new play by Frederic and Fanny Locke Hatton entitled "Upstairs and Down." The Hattons contracted Francis Powell, director and dramatist, was completed the manuscripts of several new plays and returns to New York with Mr. Moresco for this play some time within a fortnight to arrange for their production. Mr. Powell is to make sevmanuscript to California. eral productions of new plays in New Gareth Hughes, the young Welsh at for whose success has been usually bril Harold De Becker has been engaged liant in this country since he came here by the Shuberts for a part in "Hobson's with the prize Welsh play, "Change," which is to be one of their early will appear in "Moloch" this season. This Alfred de Manby, a member of Daly's Theater Company, of London, and the original Lord Amersham in The Girl from Utah, has been engaged for that part in the Julia Sanderson-Donald Brian-Joseph Cambridge (Sanderson-Donald Brian-Joseph Cambridge) Joseph Cawthorn production at the dancing act for vaudeville. Knickerbocker Theater.

JULE POWER

Who will be seen at Keith's this week in support of Edward Davis and Company

Who will be seen at Keith's this week in support of Education which the talented always appealed to me as a most implayers wear the fashions of 1776 portant one."

| Property arranged, and the unitary was Bas no Beaths | was B The former minister turned dramatic mental spectacle in which the talented author and actor. Edwards Davis, asite "Pigeon Walk." Mills "Peace Everlasting march, selections from Wallace's "Maritana," two new fox trots. Blauflus "Swanee Ripples" and Henry's ByHeck" and other classic and pretty popular selections will be included in the concert program today. There will also be a generous offering of new specialties and other attractions

Glen Echo Park.

The former minister turned dramatic mental spectacle in which the talented fashions of 1776 author and actor. Edwards Davis, assusted by Jule Power and a company of New York players in "The Peace Cry." will be the stellar attraction at romance of stage life that lends fastin "Broadway Love," a glimpse of the 10 make their Washington premiere in "Broadway Love," a glimpse of the 10 make their Washington premiere in "Broadway Love," a glimpse of the 10 make their washington premiere in "Broadway Love," a glimpse of the 10 make their washington premiere in "Broadway Love," a glimpse of the 10 make their washington premiere in "Broadway Love," a glimpse of the 10 make their washington premiere in "Broadway Love," a glimpse of the 10 make their washington premiere in "Broadway Love," a glimpse of the 10 make their washington premiere in "Broadway Love," a glimpse of the 10 make their washington premiere in "Broadway Love," a glimpse of the 10 make their washington premiere in "Broadway Love," a glimpse of the 10 make their washington premiere in "Broadway Love," a glimpse of the 10 make their washington premiere in "Broadway Love," a glimpse of the 10 make their washington premiere in "Broadway Love," a glimpse of the 10 make their washington premiere in "Broadway Love," a glimpse of the 10 make their washington premiere in "Broadway Love," a glimpse of the 10 make their washington premiere in "Broadway Love," a glimpse of the 10 make their washington premiere in "Broadway Love," a glimpse of the 10 make their washington premiere in "Broadway Love," a Glen Echo Park.

"Frofessionals barred." This expresses in which she has sung, avaluate to the season, has awakened a deal of interest. That it will be a comSeven Colonial Pooles. Heave as allied formerly with American in The American Englishman. Mr. Keane was allied formerly with Muriel Window and this Englishman. Mr. Keane was allied formerly with Muriel Window and this Englishman. Mr. Keane was allied formerly with Muriel Window and this Englishman. Mr. Keane was allied formerly with Muriel Window and this formerly with Muriel Window and this Englishman. Mr. Keane was allied formerly with Muriel Window and this formerly with Muriel Window and this season. In New York Mr. Keane is frequently formerly with Muriel Window and this season. In New York Mr. Keane is frequently formerly with Muriel Window and this season. In New York Mr. Keane is frequently work is in four acts, and in the opin-ment Keith features

Today concerts will be given as It will be given as the public of the season and an extraordinary attraction. In addition to Nat Wills, Una Clay-ton and company, and the other numbers of last week, will be motion pictures of an actual naval battle near the Dardanelles in which a big warship was sunk and all the assembled of the Seven Colonial Belles in an instru-tives will be shown all this week.

Seven Colonial Belles in an instru-tive with their heaviest guns. These pictures will be shown all this week to be the only Englishman to return to called "Irene O'Dare," which Cohan & son with the Modern State, of which I nish three of the plays and Percival L. Wilde will furnish a like number. The seazon will begin in October. Dallas Anderson will play John Shand and other important roles in the exten-is the founder. David Ninsky will fur

Thursday evening at the same time and by the same procedure the twenty contestants chosen for the finals Friday evening when the second medal will be awarded with bizarre farce. "The Isle of No-most attractive productions on the en-tire circuit, Charles Waldron's Boston-ian Eurlesquers come to the Gayety to the address appended. "The Girl Who Smiles." a new musical her Theater next week, marking the reopen ror the Sunday pairons the management has arranged for the reappearance of Celfo and his own military band, under the personal leafership of this popular Grace Baldwin. William Danforth, leaf the personal leafership of this popular of Grace Leigh, Fred Walton and numerous lar bandmaster, with a program even better than that with which this organigation made ut a debut two leafership will have the prima prancings, and headed by two leading S comedians of pronounced eccentricities, Georgia Caine will have the prima inauguration of the new season.

is by the collaborators who were respon-sible for "Alma, Where Do You Live" "The Isle of Nowhere" is said to twenty weeks tour mysterious land of India.

BELASCO THEATER WILL REOPEN SEPTEMBER 6

A telegram from L. Stoddard Taylor. resident manager of the Belasco Theater. who is summering in Maine, announces that the Belasco will reopen its doors on Monday evening, September 6, with Adreas Dippel's International Wrestling Tournament. Mr. Dippel will be pleasantly remembered for his exquisite production of "The Lilac Domino," which wice we saw last season.

AUGUSTUS THOMAS WOULD IMPROVE STAGE LIGHTING

Augustus Thomas the new art diector of the Charles Frohman Com-and one that I will strive to provide, will be a system of adequate stage lighting which I hope will relieve the without being technical Certain shadows are produced as a result of makeup on the features of the artist. This same effect can be gained by lighting properly arranged, and the detail has properly arranged, and the detail has was "Bas no Beatha"—"Death or Life"—

I keep faith.

For example, "Ducitus Not Trahitus"— he is led, not drawn: "Oro el Labora"—pray and labor: "Fidem Servo"
—I keep faith.

be the only Englishman to return to take his place in the English army John May. John May, who was with Selwyn and company all last season, has just written the following letter to them explaining his sudden departure for for the cause of Prince Charles against you that I shall be unable to be with Selwyn and company this coming season, and that some one else will have to rehearse in "Under Cover."

It was two grandsons of Neil MacLean

Tought under their kinsman Sir Lachlan: cules.

William the Pilgrim brought a wife and five children and six servants. One were left alive son. Walter, married first Elizabeth Holbrook, by whom he had eight chil-the war I should want employment I second, Mary Loomis, of Boiton, Conn.

Heralded as one of the brightest and hope Selwyn and company will not and had four children. Dr. Neil, who was o the address appended.

My kindest regards to you all.

JOHN MAY.

Lieutenant R. N. C. V. R. H. M. C.

Diana. Naval Dockyard, Halifax.

Has Left Belasco.

ning to produce in the East. The piece is by the collaborators who were responsible for "Alma, Where Do You Live".

The Isle of Nowhere" is said to be as fascinating as any fable. Not a ghost of a plot, but a whirtly-girly show with a jumble of comedy and musical selections. The famous German clowns have signed of our dreams, and the next in the everaltees and a gozen turn in at the old gate this year. Ditrichstein has left David Belasco's management and will appear under the direction of Cohan & Harris in a new play from his own pen "Jean Paurel" is the name of this newest vehicle for the famous German clowns have signed of our dreams, and the next in the everaltees and a gozen turn in at the old gate this year. Ditrichstein has left David Belasco's management and will appear under the dispersion of Cohan & Harris in a new play from his own pen "Jean Paurel" is the name of this newest vehicle for the actor-author and it will be produced early in the fall—but that is all that is known about it now.

A GROUP OF PRETTY WOMEN who are leading figures in the very successful farce, "The Last Laugh," now at the Thirty-ninth Street Theater. From left to right they are Inez Plummer, Marian Murray and Louise Corbin.

THE McLEAN FAMILY.

The MacLeans, of Mull, in the Thirteenth Century-The Early Prowess of the McLean Clan. The Lewis Who Knew Washington-"Per Mere, Per Terras" on the Alexander Coat of Arms. are two selches proper. Hatch, the Pilgrim, and His Cont of Arms-Arms Used by Benjamin Franklin.

Sixteen thousand of the clan Mac-Sixteen thousand of the clan MacLean—probably more—are still in Scotland. So if, in the early days of the New World, some few hardy pioneers of the name found occasion to secution, fled to Wales. Joining the Brit-rector of the Charles Frohman Company, has assumed his duties with a modestry that would have pleased the man whose work Mr. Thomas has taken up and who still is referred to about the Empire Theater Ruilding. taken up and who still is referred to about the Empire Theater Building as "C. F."

At his desk in the Frohman offices last week Mr. Thomas broke his silence for the first time since entering upon a new work "Whatever I may do," he said to a New York Heraid reporter. It is my desire to be guided.

Scotland, in the county of Argyllshire. Son, and in 1755 with Washington at Fort Cumberland.

Relics preserved by descendants of Zachary include his sword and a powder-smaller hills, man'y charming lakes horn, with a looking glass in the reverse, dotting the interior and beautiful and it is put down somewhere in black stormy and damp, so agriculture is favor of the county of Argyllshire.

Scotland, in the county of Argyllshire. Son, and in 1755 with Washington at Fort Cumberland.

Relics preserved by descendants of Zachary include his sword and a powder-smaller hills, man'y charming lakes down, and in 1755 with Washington at Fort Cumberland.

do," he said to a New York Heraid reporter. It is my desire to be guided by high intentions, great respect for the profession and art and a determination to keep faith with the public, recollecting first that the theater is a business enterprise."

"What is the theater's greatest need just now" he was asked "Good plays, well acted." was the reply without a moment's hesitation "All directors work differently," he continued. "It has been and will continue to be my method to regard the actor as a medium and not as a marriant manner. The manner is a property of the servant of John, was the first man to bear the name MacLean, in its earliest form.

From 1365 to 1433 the MacLean served as vessals of the Lords of the Islea—the ruler of the Hebrides—but from 1435 to redeem the motto is the same. The motto is the same. The

MC LEAN

England.

Gentlemen: Having been called out by the government and received my appointment in the navy as Lieut. R. Eight hundred MacLeans, it is said. N. C. V. R. I am sorry to have to tell fought under their kinsman Sir Lachlan. Cromwell. At the battle of Inverkeithborn about 1702 and came to America in 1736 with Dr. Morrison, settled at Hartford, Conn. He married Mrs. Hammah Stillman Caldwell, and they had six chil-dren. Mrs. Neil MacLean died in 1755, and two years later Dr. Neil married Mrs. who died in 1760

Dr. Neil MacLean, who was a physician of skill and prominence, has many descendants Another early MacLean settler in Amer ica was John, born in Argylishire in 1738 He went to Ireland in 1760 and from there to Loudoun County, Va., in 1765. In 1802 MacLean moved to Uniontown, Pa., and in 1807 to Monroe. Ohio. This early Amerscribed: Quarterly, first argent a rock tic City not long ago, and the Selwyns gules; second, argent a dexter hand fess will present it in New York some time, ways couped gules holding a cross cross- this coming season. let fitched in pale azure; third, a lymphad sable; fourth, argent a salmon niant proper and in chief two eagles' heads waged affronted gules. The crest is a towed embattled argent. The motto is "Virtue Mine Honor." The supporters are two selectes proper.

Answers to Correspondents.

To "One of the Lewis family," who asks for the name of the ancestor of the member of the "Lewis family who knew Washington:"

neers of the name found occasion to secution, fied to Wales. Joining the Brit-leave their old home for American ish army, his gallantry won him the shores, it is little wonder. Now, it is place of commander of the forces in said, over 20,000 MacLeans or McLeans Flanders, 1709. In the history of the or McLanes live in North America. in twenty-three sieges and nineteen pitched battles. He died in England His grandson, Zachary, jr., was at William and Mary College with Jeffer-son, and in 1755 with Washington at Fort Cumberland.

ctor as a medium and not as a maionette.

One of the needs of the playhouse.
One of the needs of the playhouse.
Ind one that I will strive to provide.
It is they were an independent clan, and one of the strongest in Scotland. From one of the strongest in Scotland. From elephant, in heraldry, signifies great in the service of the house of Stuart—the litton. The elephant was the ensign forts of players of a certain degree. efforts of players of a certain degree of the house of Stuart—the bition. The elephant was the ensign of artificiality By this I want correct lighting to do the work and to gain the effects that are usually accomplished by make-up Let me explain without being technical Certain shadows as result of wants. rounding the MacLeans, but even in the prosaic light of present-day history they stand out as one of the strongest and best of Scotch families.

-he is led, not drawn: "Ore el La-

> To T. Hatch, who asks for the record of the ancestor of the Hatch family, who was a Pilgrim, and his coat of arms, if he had one:
> Hatch is a name derived from an old Anglo-Saxon word, hacche, meaning a door or floodgate, and consisting of great stakes or piles on the part of the company of great stakes or piles.

> ing of great stakes or piles put up by fishermen for the better conveni-ence of securing fish. A weir, by old country folk, is always called a hatch. Hatch or hacche is also a term for bar athwart a woodland path, or in a forest, to prevent deer escaping. If Henry lived near a hatch, he would be called "Henry atte hatch," or "Henry at hatch." and is course of time Henry Hatch. or Hatcher. Rich-ard atte Hache and Philip de la Hache are names we come across in old dec-Hatchman and Hatchett are variations of the name.

Hache is a name occurring in Domesday Book: also Achard, another form of Hatchard.

Saterleigh Park. Devon, is one old seat of the Hatch family.

William of Scituate, Mass, is one of the Pilgrim fathers who helped to build up this country. He was born in England. Another progenitor was at Boston. They came from Sandwich, Kent County, about 1634, in the Hercules.
William the Pilgrim brought a wife son. Walter, married first Elizabeth Holbrook, by whom he had eight chilto rehearse in "Under Cover."

It was two grandsons of Neil MacLean Holbrook, by whom he had eight chilled the founded one branch of the family dren; for his second wife. Mary, whose left New York, but I had to leave Alian.

It was two grandsons of Neil MacLean Holbrook, by whom he had eight chilled the family dren; for his second wife. Mary, whose last name has not been handed down to us.

left New York, but I had to leave very hurriedly.

Please accept my thanks for the long and happy season at the Cort Theater in "Under Cover," and if after the war I should want employment I second Many Leomia of Raiton Conn.

Alian married Susanna Beauchamp, and bearing of Thomas and William Hatch, pigrims was the armorial bearing of Thomas Hatch, lord of the second Many Leomia of Raiton Conn. manor of Sutton, Sussex, desce of an ancient Devonshire family

It is emblazoned as follows: Gules, two demi-lions rampant, or, Crest, a demi-lion, rampant, or, holding between his paws a sphere, with a cross patee fitchee.

Motto, "Fortis Valore Et Armis" Brave by valor and by arms.

"Safer with Hope Than with Arms," another motto of the Hatch family. "A collateral descendant of Franklin." who asks whether Benjamin Franklin bore a coat of arms:

The coat of arms used by Benjamin Franklin was that of the Franklyns of Devon, England. It is described as argent on a bend between two lions' There are many other members of the clan MacLean in the United States today, and all of them could doubtless, if the records of their descent were preserved. try." Another motto is "Exemplum adest ipse homo"—"Conduct marks the man." A motto was a war cry, and not permitted to persons below a certain rank. The lion is one of the most noble of heraldic devices, signifying, among other things, strength and bold-ness: this is also the meaning in heraldry of the color gules. The spotless white of argent, when combined with gules, indicates courage. (Copyright, 1915

AUGUST PRODUCTIONS IN NEW YORK

Sixteen plays, all of them running merrily between farce and comedy, are to be seen in New York within the next three weeks. All were intended for laughing purposes, probably to re lieve the strain of war and to enter-tain the constantly increasing throng of summer sojourners who come to New York and tarry here instead of taking the first steamship for Europe. as so many vacationists did in former midsummers.
These are troublesome times, and between the terrors of war and film producers are bending every energy to overcome obstacles with an overwhelming crop of laughs. So the forwhelming crop of laughs. So the forlowing plays are in rehearsal for immediate production: "Sherman Was Right," "Brother Masons," "Me and My Dog," "Cousin Lucy," "See My Lawyer," "Search Me," "My Myd's Mystery," "No. 13 Washington Square," "Fair and Warmer" (formerly "The Mystic Shrine") "Oh. Doctor:" "The Boomerang," "Jean Paurel," "Under Pire" and "Some Baby." "The Last Boomerang," "Jean Paurel," Fire" and "Some Baby." "Th Laugh," which really was one "The Last first, began its career in the Thirtyninth Street Theater Thursday night

Billie Burke's Plans.

Billie Burke, the only one of the Frohman stars who will not answer at roll call when the new season begins, is, for a time, to practice her wiles upon the motion-picture cam-ers, and then, much more wealthy for that venture, she will resume her work on the New York stage, appearing in a new comedy with herself as the star and her husband as the manager. This trace their ancestry to the island of out of the memory of his youth in Mull. in Argyllshire, Scotland. And as Kentucky, and it is the name of the one historian put it: "There were mighty play which Bayard Veiller, with some men in Mull in those days and the Mac-collaboration from Cobb. has fashioned from that book for the New The arms of the MacLeans are developed. Our property for the second a rock of the College of the Selvyns.

"Back Home."

Skinner Is Rehearsing.

Otis Skinner is at Bryn Mawr-his home, not the college-contentedly familiarizing himself with the manu-script of a new, and as yet nameless. play by Henry Arthur Jones. The leading character, an apropriately roman-tic role, is an actor. The play is a comedy.

AMUSEMENTS.

ECHO

BIG GALA WEEK TODAY

ADMISSION FREE

FREE AT 3:30, 5:30, 7:30, 9:30 POPULAR CONCERTS BY

CELFO AND HIS OWN MILITARY BAND

FREE OPEN-AIR PHOTOPLAYS OTHER FEATURES

SPECIAL ONE STEP AND HESITATION CONTESTS

FOR SOLID GOLD 4 KT. DIA-MOND STUDDED MEDALS, VAL-UED AT $50.00 EACH.

DISPLAYED AT STORE OF SCHWARTZ, 708 7TH ST. N. W.

Tues., Aug. 10 AT 10:30 P. M. ELIMINATION ONE-STEP CONTEST. SELECTION OF BEST 20 COUPLES TO COM-PETE THE FOLLOWING NIGHT.

Wed., Aug. 11 AT 10:30 P. M. FINALS OF ONE STEP CONTEST AND PRESENTA-TION OF MEDAL TO LADY.

Thurs., Aug. 12 AT 10:30 P. M. ELIMINATION HESITATION WALTZ CONTEST SELECTION OF BEST 20 COUPLES TO COMPETE THE FOLLOWING

Fri. Aug. 13 AT 10:30 P. M. FINALS OF HESI-TATION WALTZ CONTEST AND PRESENTATION OF MEDAL TO

JUDGING OF FINALS, TO ASCERTAIN SEASON OF 1915 CHAMPIONS WILL BE MADE BY THE PUBLIC

THE MANAGEMENT SELECTING ENTRANTS FOR BOTH ELIMINA-TION CONTESTS FROM COUPLES DANCING ON TUESDAY AND THURSDAY EVENINGS.

Burlesquers Everything New Even the Title. 100% Attraction—Bright. Breezy and Buoyant.

Daily, 2:15 and 8:15. Sun., 3 and 8:15. Mats., 25c., Eve's 25c to $1. Phones 4454-4485. "The Only Place to Go for Fun." The New York Dramatic Triumph MR. EDWARDS DAVIS & CO Including Jule Power and Ten Players. Tense- THE PEACE CRY -Thrilling.

The Stunning Prime Donna LILIAN HERLEIN of "THE NEVER HOMES," Etc. The Duke of Drollery.

ROBERT EMMETT KEANE Extra-Actual World-War Picture

DREADNAUGHTS IN ACTION"

"Rack Home." That is the name of Emanuel Reicher is to James Montgomery has written a play groups of short American plays this sea-